Juan Pablo del Valle Perochena elected to board of Johnson Controls

2015-11-18

MILWAUKEE, Nov. 18, 2015 /PRNewswire/ -- The board of directors of Johnson Controls, (NYSE: JCI), a global multi-industrial company, today elected Juan Pablo del Valle Perochena to serve as a director, effective immediately.

Del Valle Perochena is chairman of Mexichem S.A.B. de C.V., a global leader in plastic piping systems and the chemical and petrochemical industries. Since 2002, the company has increased its sales to $6 billion and expanded its presence beyond Mexico to more than 30 countries. Del Valle Perochena began his career as an industrial engineer and previously ran his family's company, Grupo Empresarial Kaluz, where he was responsible for real estate investments/operations and the chemical business.

"Juan Pablo brings to our board unique experience in construction and real estate development as well as a global perspective from serving on the boards of several multi-national companies operating in the United States," said Alex Molinaroli, chairman and CEO, Johnson Controls.

Del Valle Perochena has a master of business administration degree from Harvard Business School.
